

We are recruiting Children and Young People for our Advisory Panel!

The Young People's Advisory Panel is a new and exciting group being formed to advise Sally Holland, the Children's Commissioner for Wales on her work.

What are we looking for?
12 young people aged 11-18 who have some previous experience of representing the views of other people and who are confident to share their ideas and opinions with others.

For further information and an application form to apply, visit our recruitment page at:
www.childcomwales.org.uk

Closing date for expressions of interest:
Monday 20th June 2016.