

Making Rights Real

This template is for schools that took part in the Rights Survey and have received their Rights Survey Report. The template will help teachers and young people to set targets together using your report. You can adapt this template to suit your school.

What are the best things the report shows about your school?

3.

What does the report show that you'd like to change and improve in your school? Discuss and use the spidergram to record your ideas....

Use the action plan to think about how and when you can make these changes.

Action Plan for Change

What shall we change?	How will we change it?	Who will do this?	When will it be done? This week? This term? Next year?

Top-tips

- For ideas about how to make changes use Sally's Guidance, The Right Way: a Children's Rights Approach to Education in Wales
- Do the Rights Survey again in summer term 2019 and see if your changes have made a difference
- Make sure you're signed up to Sally's Ambassador schemes for termly resources to support children's rights in your school
