Whistleblowing Disclosures

Annual Report 2017 — 2018

This report has been completed in line with the legal requirements of "The Prescribed Persons (Reports on Disclosures of Information) Regulations 2017".

These regulations set out the reporting requirements for organisations and individuals who are Prescribed Persons for Whistleblowing. Prescribed persons are people and bodies you can blow the whistle to rather than your employer.

The Children's Commissioner for Wales is a prescribed person for Whistleblowing in relation to children's interests and can be contacted about matters relating to the rights, welfare and issues affecting children, young people and those who care for them, in Wales.

The following report provides information in respect of Whistleblowing as outlined in the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial strategy "Whistleblowing — Prescribed Persons Guidance 2017".

1. Statistics

Number of qualifying disclosures of information made by workers during the twelve month period 1.4.17 — 31.3.18	1
The number of qualifying disclosures where the Children's Commissioner for Wales decided to take further action	0

2. Summary of the type of action taken by the prescribed person in respect of qualifying person in respect of qualifying disclosures of information.

Advice was provided to the Whistleblower about the role of the Children's Commissioner for Wales as a prescribed whistleblowing organisation.

The Whistleblower had instigated local authority whistleblowing policy and the matters raised by the Whistleblower were being investigated by the local authority. While there was already an ongoing investigation into the issues raised by the Whistleblower it was not appropriate for the Children's Commissioner to undertake any further action.

The Whistleblower was offered ongoing support should they be dissatisfied with the investigation being undertaken by the local authority. To date this has not been taken up.

3. Summary of how the information disclosed has impacted on the Children's Commissioner for Wales' ability to perform its functions and meet its objectives.

There has been no impact as no action was taken in relation to the information disclosed.

4. Explanation of the Children's Commissioner for Wales, functions objectives and statutory powers

The Children's Commissioner for Wales (the "Commissioner") is an office established pursuant to the Children's Commissioner for Wales Act 2001 which amended the Care Standards Act 2000 ("2000 Act"). The Commissioner's powers and functions are derived from the 2000 Act.

Further powers are granted to the Commissioner pursuant to The Children's Commissioner for Wales Regulations 2001 ("2001 Regulations"). In essence, these regulations expand on the powers and functions granted to the Commissioner under the 2000 Act.

The principal aim of the Commissioner is to safeguard and promote the rights and welfare of children.

The Commissioner's main statutory powers can be divided into two headings:

- Powers to review the activities of certain public bodies; and
- Powers to assist individual children.

Powers to Review

The Commissioner has the power to:

- review the functions or exercise of functions of various public bodies including the Welsh Government; and
- review and monitor the arrangements which certain public bodies have in place to safeguard and promote the rights of children in respect of:
 - dealing with complaints or representations;
 - ensuring that proper action is taken in response to whistle blowing;
 - representing the views and wishes of children;
 - providing children with advice and support.

Powers to Assist

In relation to individual children, the Commissioner has the power to:

- examine individual cases in certain circumstances; and
- provide assistance to a child in:
 - making a complaint or representation in relation to the services the child receives; or
 - certain proceedings (there are restrictions in relation to legal proceedings).
