

Findings: BAME young people

=

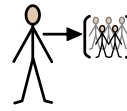

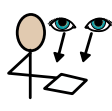

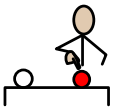

Sally Holland is the Children's Commissioner for Wales.

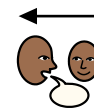

Sally asked children and young people how they felt about staying at home during the coronavirus pandemic.

This report shows what children who belong to the Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) communities told Sally.

 Some things were better for BAME children than for white children, like:

-

 Learning new skills

-

 Exercising indoors

-

 Cooking with family

 Some things were worse for BAME children than for white children, like:

-

 Wanting extra help and information

-

 Worrying about having enough food for their families

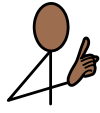

-

 Wanting more opportunities to play

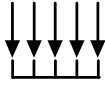

Sally's

job is to make sure

all

children

get their rights.

Sally

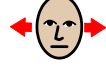

is worried

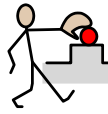

some

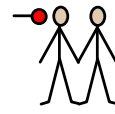

children

do not get

their rights.

Sally

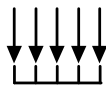

will

work

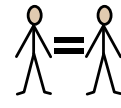

to make sure

all

children

are equal.