

my favourite game to play is ...

This year as part of the Haf o Hwyl project we would like to create an e-book of your favourite games and play ideas. The e-book will be full of ideas from children across Wales, and we will release it for Playday.

Playday is the national day for play in the UK. It's an annual celebration of every child's right to play. This year it will take place on Wednesday 4 August. Find out more about Playday at: www.playday.org.uk

To make the book, we need your help. Tell us about your favourite game and how you play it by writing or drawing in the boxes below.

Name of your game: _____

How many can play: _____

How do you play:

Rules of the game:
